April 1	Our Center, the Eucharist	As we enter Holy Week let's take a closer look at the heart of the Catholic Faith and, what can and should be the center of our lives – the re-presentation of Christ's sacrifice for us on Calvary.
May 6	Shrine and Dine: Our Lady of Good Help	Even if you've been to the Shrine, you'll enjoy this bus trip with other pilgrims who are eager to honor Our Blessed Mother, to go to Mass, to light a candle in the Grotto, and then to explore Door County (including a pizza/salad lunch and a fish boil). Entire day adventure!
July 1	Moving from Anger to Forgiveness	Anger is not a primary emotion, but ignites from hurt, abandonment, embarrassment, etc. Anger's wounds can linger for decades and ruin relationships. How do we move from anger to forgiveness? Why is forgiveness so important? What is forgiveness and what is it not?
August 5	No worries! Fear not!	It seems that fear is more prevalent than ever. The news is full of reports and warnings about inflation, recession, pandemics, nuclear war, food, and fuel shortages. Scripture contains 365 "Fear not's". We need each one. God is all powerful, all loving, and He loves you. Why fear?
September 2	What is Truth?	This is the question Pilate asked Jesus shortly before he signed him over to crucifixion. Jesus is Truth incarnate. There is such a thing as Truth, and it is splendid, good, and beautiful. Many in our world no longer acknowledge objective truth. This erosion is at the heart of most of our troubles today.
October 7	Shrine and Dine: Our Lady of Good Help	Even if you've been to the Shrine, you'll enjoy this bus trip with other pilgrims who are eager to honor Our Blessed Mother, to go to Mass, to light a candle in the Grotto, and then to explore Door County (including a pizza/salad lunch and a fish boil). Entire day adventure!
November 4	Be a Saint!	Nothing is more important than this. How are we to live in such a way that we are ready to meet Jesus when we die? It's not impossible to get ready for heaven now, no matter the state of life, situation, or challenges in which we find ourselves.
December 2	Humility Factor	Humility is the foundation of the virtues, of sanctity, of pleasing God. Let's take a closer look at what humility is and isn't and identify ways He is helping us grow in this area (hint: it usually doesn't feel great, but it works for the good).
